HEALTH AND SAFETY IN THE MOUNTAINS

Climate

Aspen is at an elevation of nearly 8,000 feet and the climate is dry. Together, these two qualities make the perfect environment for dehydration and altitude sickness to occur. When arriving at Aspen, refrain from strenuous activity and exercise, and drink plenty of water until you feel acclimated. Summer temperatures range from ninety degrees during the day to fifty degrees (sometimes, lower) at night. Brief afternoon showers are common. Dress in layers and bring a raincoat, sweater, or light jacket. Aspen day dress is casual (jeans, shorts, and other casual attire).

Wildlife

Aspen is known for sightings of elk, black bears, occasional sightings of moose, and very rare sightings of mountain lions, in addition to other wildlife. Black bears are timid animals, but they are attracted to food. The best way to avoid an encounter is to properly dispose of your trash in bear-proof containers (provided on the Bucksbaum Campus and around Aspen). Keep food items out of vehicles and close / lock ground floor doors and windows. If you encounter a bear, make your presence known by making noise (don't surprise the animal), and back away slowly (do not run). Moose sightings are rarer than bear sightings, but moose can be aggressive. If you see a moose, do not approach the animal. Position yourself so there is a physical barrier between you and the moose and then create a wide berth as quickly and calmly as possible. Mountain lion sightings are extremely rare but not a safe situation. If you see a mountain lion, make yourself seem as large as possible, make noise, do not act afraid, and slowly create distance between you and the animal. Elk are generally not a danger but are beautiful to observe in the mountains.

Hiking Safety

Some of the most beautiful hikes in the world are in the Rocky Mountains. Make sure you explore safely. Have a plan – study your map and bring it with you. Hike in groups of three or more. Tell someone where you are going and your expected time of return. Carry and drink plenty of water (a minimum of one quart every two hours), wear sturdy footwear with traction, dress in layers, and stay on the trail.

We recommend that all alums purchase a CORSAR (Colorado Outdoor Recreation Search and Rescue) card. For just a few dollars, you help to ensure that emergencies can be responded to in a timely manner with all the resources that can help save a life on the trail.

Purchase a CORSAR Card:

- Online
- By phone: 303-864-7748

River Safety

White-water rafting is a popular sport in the area. Rivers run high in early summer, following the snow-melt. We recommend staying off the rivers until late summer. Should you take part in the sport, always go with a guide and wear the recommended safety equipment.

LODGING

Alums must make their own living arrangements. Housing in Aspen is expensive; consider housing in the Snowmass Village or "down valley" areas. Make arrangements early; summer housing usually becomes available in March or April after the ski season.

PARKING AND TRANSPORTATION IN ASPEN AND AT AMFS

Alums are strongly encouraged to leave personal vehicles at home and use public transportation or bikes while in Aspen. There is no guest parking on the Bucksbaum Campus and limited parking at other AMFS venues. Vehicles in violation of the parking restrictions will be towed or booted. Towing charges apply. There is a $75 fine to remove the boot.

Parking Violation Breakdown

Bucksbaum Campus:

- First offense – Warning
- Second offense – $60 ticket
- Third offense – $75 ticket and boot on vehicle
- Fourth offense – Vehicle will be towed at the alums’ expense

Meadows Campus:

- First offense – Vehicle will be towed at the alums’ expense

Personal Vehicles

Alums are strongly encouraged to leave personal vehicles at your place of residence and use public transportation while in Aspen. There is no guest parking on the Bucksbaum Campus and limited parking at other AMFS venues. Aspen is a small, densely populated, tourist town. Traffic is heavy, parking is insufficient, and gasoline prices far exceed national averages.

Bus Service

- The Roaring Fork Transit Authority (RFTA), rated the “Best Mass Transit System of North America,” offers free and convenient bus service between all AMFS venues and extends from the City of Aspen to Snowmass Village.

Parking by Venue

- Bucksbaum Campus – two guest parking spots.
- Meadows Campus: Michael Klein Music Tent, Hospitality Tent, Paepcke Terrace, and Harris Concert Hall – Alums may park in the Gillespie (front) lot only.

Bicycling

- WE-cycle, a bike-share system similar to systems in many major cities, will be offering free access to its bike-share network this summer. With over a dozen stations, including the Michael Klein Music Tent, WE-cycle offers students an easy and convenient way to get around town. For more information visit
- Alums will need to purchase or bring their own lock and helmet. Alums should always wear a helmet when riding a bicycle and respect the health of our trees by chaining bikes only to the bike racks provided. Bike racks can be found in various locations on the Bucksbaum Campus. On the Meadows property, racks are on the south end of the grounds near the bus stop and hospitality tent and also at the north end near the loading dock of Harris Hall.

PETS

- Pets are not permitted inside any AMFS facilities at the Bucksbaum Campus, Meadows Campus, or the Wheeler Opera House. This includes residence halls, rehearsal halls, performance venues, studio and classroom buildings, practice rooms, and cafeterias.
- While animals are permitted outside of AMFS facilities, they may not be disruptive and must be always leashed and attended to. They may not be left chained and unattended. Owners are responsible for immediately disposing of waste.
- No animals are permitted on the Aspen School District campus.
- Alums are strongly advised against bringing pets to Aspen.

RECORDING

- Recordings at AMFS are made for internal archival and educational purposes only with current students and faculty. Personal recording of any kind is prohibited.
- Photos and Video will be captured throughout Alumni Weekend. If you prefer not to be photographed, please let the photographer know.

TRANSPORTATION TO AND AROUND ASPEN

Traveling to Aspen

Aspen is located 220 miles west of Denver, Colorado (about a 3.5-hour drive). The City of Aspen is served by major airlines.

Travel Dates

Note that the dates surrounding the AMFS season get booked early. Reserve travel as far in advance as possible.

Flying Into Aspen

The Aspen/Pitkin County Airport (ASE) is located ten minutes from downtown Aspen. AMFS volunteers will be at the airport to assist students arriving on July 19 and 20 during the most popular travel times. Free bus service is available from the airport to the Bucksbaum Campus, Meadows Campus, and downtown Aspen. Please check with the bus driver to determine which stops they intend to make. Alums may also use High Mountain Taxi service (970-925-8294), which is readily available. Expect a fare of approximately $20.

Flying Into Area Airports

- Denver International Airport (DEN) is a large airport approximately 220 miles from Aspen that often offers a more affordable (but less convenient) option.
- Eagle-Vail Airport (EGE), approximately 1.5 hours by car from Aspen, is another option. This is also a smaller, regional airport so do pay attention to cargo restrictions.
- Grand Junction Regional Airport (GJT) is approximately 2 hours by car from Aspen. This is also a small regional airport that may have cargo restrictions or limited services.

- Take the scenic route via Independence Pass. Drive west on I-70 and take the exit for I-91 South. Travel through Leadville (I-91 becomes 24 South), then west onto Highway 82 over Independence Pass. Follow the signs for Highway 82/Main Street through downtown Aspen (Main Street takes several turns.) Leaving Aspen, enter the roundabout and take the Castle Creek Road exit.
